page 3

For simple XAI (explainable AI), try a little sampling theory and a little learning.	if not name 126 push (name
For example, if we apply a sorting heuristic to data, we can binary chop our way down to good solutions. Assuming such chops, at probability _P_, we find _q percent "best" items (where "best" is	if name:
at probability P_, we find qq percent "best" items (where "best" is	130 XY summari defined by the Zitzler's multi-objective indicator) using n=log2(log(1-P)/log(1-q)) samples. e.g. the 5% best within 10,000 samples is hunted down using less than n=10 samples. Sounds too good to be true?	131 'num2' is op 132 'y' is option 133 function XY:new is hunted down using less than n=10 samples. Sounds too good to be true? Well lets check.	134 return {txt = 135 at =
	136 xlo = 137 xhi =
This code starts with a config variable ('the') and ends with a library of demos (see the 'go' functions at end of file) Each setting can be (optionally) updated by a command-line flag.	138 y =
Each setting can be (optionally) updated by a command-line flag Demos can be run separately or all at once (using '-g all') For regression tests, we report the failures seen when the demos run.	140
	142 Read 'filena 143 local function
This code makes extensive use of a DATA object. Data from disk	144 local data=DF 145 csv(sFilename becomes a DATA. DATA are recursive bi-clustered by partitioning on the distance to two distant ROWs (found via the FASTMAP	146 return data e linear time random projection algorithm). Each cluster is new DATA object, containing a subset	148 Copy the s 149 Optionally, of the data. A decision tree is built that reports the difference between the "best" and "worst" clusters (defined using a multi-objective	function DATA: local datal= domination predicate) and that tree is just a tree of DATAs with 'kids' pointer to sub-DATAs). This process	datal:add(sel
- Integet time faultual pack cluster is new DATA object, containing a subset project to land a Articision tree is built that reports the difference between the "best" and "worst" clusters (defined using a multi-objective domination predicate) and that tree is just a tree of DATAs with 'kids' pointer to sub-DATAs). This process only needs log2(N) queries to y-values (while clustering, just on the pairs of distance objects).	155 156 distance objects).	157 Add a `rov 158 If this is t convenntions "is" [refix is a bookeam. "n" is a number, sprefix=string prefix means internal function local the {	159 function DATA:a
about ={ what = "XALLUA"; why = "Multi-objective semi-supervised explanation", who = "Tim Menzies (timm@ieee.orgs",	if self.abd then push(sel tel else self.abd who = "Tim Menzies <imm@ieee.org>", when = 2022.</imm@ieee.org>	163 164 Add a row when = 2022/minutes unimmerice.orgs", when = 2022/minutes unimmerice.orgs", copyright = "BSD-2 clause license", how = "USAGE: lus xai.lus -[bf[gmmps]] j, Balance 4, for delta, ratio restibest	165 This code in bins = 16 for bins, initial #bins (before merging)	167 calcs are no 168 To disable t 169 `local row = 170 function ABOUT:
go = "pass", start up action min = .5, for bestOrRest, cluster down to N^min groupings	171 local row = t 172 for _, cols in ratios = 512, for RATIO, max sample size p = 2, for dist, distance coeffecient	for _, col in return row er 175
stop - 6 for derta, min fow size.	176 Add someth 177 For 'NOM' co 178 of how many Names Misc general functions local _require*lib*	179 keep at most 180 'inc' is opt
<pre>local _=require"lib" local any,big,cat,chat,cli,coerce=any,big,cat,chat,cli,coerce</pre>	182 for fast NON local any, big.cat, chat,cli,coerce=_any,_big,_cat,_chat,_cli,_coerce local csy,csv2data,fmt,get,gt=_csy,_csv2data,_fmt,_get,gt local klass, lines,lt,many,map = _klass,_lines,lt,_many,_map local obj,per,gush,rand,rev,rnd = _obj,_per,_push,_rand,_rev,_rnd local rogues,same,shuffle,silce,sort=_rogues,_same,_sluffle,_silce,_sort	183 function NOM:ac 184 if x ~= "?" t local obj,per,push,rand,rev,rnd =obj,per,push,rand,rev,rnd	185 num = num c 186 self.n = se local rogues, same, shulle, siice, sortrogues,same,shulle,siice,sort	NO SCIIII SC
Total values, words—values,words	self.has[x]
local values, words learning modules local bins, half, how	187 self.has[x] 188 189 function RATIO: 190 if x ~= "?" t learning modules local bins, half, how Klasses	187 self.has[x] 188 189 function RATIO: 190 if x ~= "?" 191 local pos 192 self.n = 56
local part, part and	187 self.has[x] 188 function RATIO: 190 if x -= "?" t 191 local pos 192 self.n = sel 187 self.has[x] 188 function RATIO: 190 if x ~= "?" t 191 local pos 192 self.n = se 193 if #sel 194 elseif ranc self.has[x] model function RATIO: model for x = "?" to self.n = ## self.has[x] ## function RATIO: ## fix ~= P ## local pos ## self.n = s ## self.n = s ## self.n = s ## self.has ## self.has ## self.has ## Add in 'x, ## function XY:add ## self.has[x] ## function RATIO: ## 100al pos ## 100al pos ## 25 self.n = 8 ## 25 self.n = 8 ## 25 self.n = 8 ## 25 self.has ## 25 self.has ## 25 self.has ## 26 self.has ## 27 self.x = ## ## 28 self.x = ## ##
	### self.has[x] ### function RATIO ### self.n = self.
	self.has[x] self.nas[x] self.n
	self.has[x] self.nas[x] self.n
	self.has[x] self.nas[x] self.n
	## self.has[x] ## function RATIO: ## fix -= P* ## ## local pos ## local pos ## local pos ## elseif ran ## elseif ran ## self.ok=: ##
	## self.has[x] ## function RATIO: ## local pos ## self.n p self.has[x] function RATTO if x = ATTO if self.has[x] splitter of the control
learning modules local bins, half, how Klasses local ABOUT, DATA, NOM= klass*ABOUT*, klass*DATA*, klass*NOM* local ABOUT, DATA, NOM= klass*RATIO*, klass*ROW*, klass*XY* Classes In this code, function arguments offer some type hints. 'xs' denotes a list of type 'x' for x in bool, str, num, int or one of the user defined types. 't' denotes a list of any type. User-defined types are create by functions 't' objects a list of any type. User-defined types are create by functions any arguments with more than two spaces before it are local vals (so don't use those). "*'is' recognizes column types. These column types appear in first row of our CSV files. local ""[S", ratio cols start with uppercase goal = "[A-J]", ratio cols start with uppercase goal = "[A-J]", klass, [+,-]=maximize, minimize klass = "S", klass; if "!" skip = "S", skip if ":" less = "S", skip if ":" less = "S", minimize if "=" local function col(sName,iAt) sName = sName or "" return (n = 0, how many items seen? at i at or 0, position ot column txt = sName, column header w = sName; find (_is.less) and -lor 1, ok = true, false if some update needed has = ()) end place to keep (some) column values.	self.has[x] self.nas[x] self.n
learning modules local bins, half, how Klasses local ABOUT, DATA, NOM= klass*ABOUT*, klass*DATA*, klass*NOM* local RATIO, NOM, XY = klass*RATIO*, klass*ROW*, klass*XY* local ABOUT, DATA, NOM= klass*ABOUT*, klass*ROW*, klass*XY* local RATIO, NOM, XY = klass*RATIO*, klass*ROW*, klass*XY*	self.has[x] self.h
learning modules local bins, half, how Klasses local ABOUT, DATA, NOM= klass*ABOUT*, klass*DATA*, klass*NOM* local ABOUT, DATA, NOM= klass*ARATO*, klass*ROW*, klass*XY* local ABOUT, DATA, NOM= klass*ARATO*, klass*ROW*, klass*XY* Classes In this code, function arguments offer some type hints 'xs' denotes a list of type 'x' for x in bool, str, num, int or one of the user defined types 't' denotes a list of any type. User-defined types are create by functions with UPPER CASE names. Any argument with spaces before it is optional Any arguments with more than two spaces before it is optional 'is' recognizes column types. These column types appear in first row of our CSV files. local _is= "\[A-Z]", ratio cols start with uppercase	self.has[x] self.has[x] self.nas[x] self.n
learning modules local bins, half, how Klasses local ABOUT, DATA, NOM= klass*ABOUT*, klass*DATA*, klass*NOM* local ABOUT, DATA, NOM= klass*ABOUT*, klass*ROW*, klass*XY* local ABOUT, DATA, NOM= klass*ABOUT*, klass*ROW*, klass*XY*	self.has[x] self.mas[x] self.m
learning modules local bins, half, how Klasses local ABOUT, DATA, NOM= klass*ABOUT*, klass*DATA*, klass*NOM* local ABOUT, DATA, NOM= klass*ABOUT*, klass*ROW*, klass*XY* local ABOUT, DATA, NOM= klass*ABOUT*, klass*ROW*, klass*XY*	self.has[x] self.nas[x] self.n
learning modules local bins, half, how Klasses local ABOUT, DATA, NOM= klass*ABOUT*, klass*DATA*, klass*NOM* local ABOUT, DATA, NOM= klass*ABOUT*, klass*ROW*, klass*XY* local ABOUT, DATA, NOM= klass*ABOUT*, klass*ROW*, klass*XY* local ABOUT, DATA, NOM= klass*ABOUT*, klass*ROW*, klass*XY*	self.has[x] self.nas[x] self.n
learning modules local bins, half, how Klasses local ABOUT, DATA, NOM= klass*ABOUT*, klass*DATA*, klass*NOM* local ABOUT, DATA, NOM= klass*ABOUT*, klass*ROW*, klass*XY* local ABOUT, DATA, NOM= klass*ABOUT*, klass*ROW*, klass*XY* local ABOUT, DATA, NOM= klass*ABOUT*, klass*ROW*, klass*XY*	self.has[x] function RATIO if x = ATIO if y = ATIO if y = ATIO if x = ATIO if x = ATIO if y = ATIO if x = ATIO if x = ATIO if x = ATIO if x = ATIO if y = ATIO if
learning modules local bins, half, how Klasses local ABOUT, DATA, NOM= klass "ABOUT", klass "DATA", klass "NOM" local ABOUT, DATA, NOM= klass "RATIO", klass "ROW", klass "XY" Classes In this code, function arguments offer some type hints. 'ks' denotes a list of type 'x' for 'kin bool, str, num, innor, ye. User-defined types. 'kin bool, str, num, innor, ye. User-defined types are create by functions 'kin bool, str, num, innor, ye. User-defined types are create by functions 'kin bool, str, num, innor, ye. User-defined types are create by functions 'kin bool, str, num, innor, ye. User-defined types are create by functions 'kin bool, str, num, innor, ye. User-defined types are create by functions 'kin brook stream in the stream in the same of the stream in the same should be supported by the stream in the same of the stream in the same of the stream in the same of the same o	self.has[x] self.nas[x] self.n
learning modules local bins, half, how Klasses local ABOUT, DATA, NOM= klass "ABOUT", klass "DATA", klass "NOM" local ABOUT, DATA, NOM= klass "RATIO", klass "ROW", klass "XY" Classes In this code, function arguments offer some type hints. 'ks' denotes a list of type 'x' for 'kin bool, str, num, innor, ye. User-defined types. 'kin bool, str, num, innor, ye. User-defined types are create by functions 'kin bool, str, num, innor, ye. User-defined types are create by functions 'kin bool, str, num, innor, ye. User-defined types are create by functions 'kin bool, str, num, innor, ye. User-defined types are create by functions 'kin bool, str, num, innor, ye. User-defined types are create by functions 'kin brook stream in the stream in the same of the stream in the same should be supported by the stream in the same of the stream in the same of the stream in the same of the same o	self.has[x] function RATIO if if we was a continuous and a continuous an
learning modules local bins, half, how Klasses local ABOUT, DATA, NOM= klass*ABOUT*, klass*DATA*, klass*NOM* local ABOUT, DATA, NOM= klass*ABOUT*, klass*ROW*, klass*XY* local ABOUT, DATA, NOM= klass*ABOUT*, klass*ROW*, klass*XY* local ABOUT, DATA, NOM= klass*ABOUT*, klass*ROW*, klass*XY*	self.has[x] self.has[x] self.nas[x] is function RATIO if x = x = x = x = x = x = x = x = x = x
learning modules local bins, half, how Klasses local ABOUT, DATA, NOM= klass*ABOUT*, klass*DATA*, klass*NOM* local ABOUT, DATA, NOM= klass*ABOUT*, klass*ROW*, klass*XY* local ABOUT, DATA, NOM= klass*ABOUT*, klass*ROW*, klass*XY*	self.has[x] function RATIO if x = x = x = x = x = x = x = x = x = x
	self.has[x] function RATIO if year i self.has[x] self.has[x] self.nas[x] is function RATTO if x = x = x = x = x = x = x = x = x = x self.has[x] self.nas[x] self.n

```
not name:find(_is.skip) then ssh(name:find(_is.goal) and about.y or about.x, one) name:find(_is.klass) then about.klass=one end end end 250 function NOM:div( nPlaces) local out = 0
for _,n in pairs(self.has) do if n>0 then out=out-n/self.n*math.log(n/self.n,2) end end return places and rnd(out,nPlaces) or out end summarize data from the same rows from two columns.
' is optional (defaults to 'numl').
s optional (defaults to a new NOM) function RATIO:div( nPlaces) local nums=self:holds() local out = (per(nums,.9) - per(nums,.1))/2.58
return places and rnd(out,nPlaces) or out end XY:new(str,at,num1,num2,nom)
     Arinew(str,at,num1,num2,nom) {txt = str,
    at = at,
    xlo = num1,
    xhi = num2 or num1,
    y = nom or NOM(str,at) } end local rowl=self
     - ---- Functions for Types
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       rowl.evaled, row2.evaled= true, true
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    rowl.evaled,row2.evaled= true,true
local sl,s2,d,n,x,y=0,0,0,0 local ys,e= rowl.about.y,math.exp(1) for _,rool in pairs(ys) do x,y= rowl.cells[col.at], row2.cells[col.at] x,y= col.norm(x), col.norm(y) sl = sl - e^(col.w* (x-y)/$ys) s2 = s2 - e^(col.w* (y-x)/$ys) end return s2/$ys < sl/$ys end
   ----- Functions for Types
----- Create
'filename' into a DATA object. Return that object.
nction csv2data(sFilename)
data=DATA()
  Filename, function(t) data:add(t) end)

1 data end
   y the structure of 'data'.
nally, add rows of data (from 't').
DATA:clone(t)
data!= DATA()
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                -- Return 0..1 for distance between two rows using 'cols' -- (and 'cols' defaults to the 'x' columns).
   add(self.about.names)
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              -- (and 'cols') defaults to the 'x' columns).
function ROW: sub(row2)
local rowl=self |
local dn,xy,distl=0,0 local cols = cols or self.about.x for _col in pairs(cols) do x,y = rowl.cells[col.st], row2.cells[col.st] d = d + col:dist(x,y)^the.p
    n = n + l end return (d/n)^tl/the.p) end rowl in pairs(t or {}) do datal:add(rowl) end datal end
   ----- Update
la 'row' to 'data'.
iis is top row, use 't' to initial 'data.about'.
    DATA:add(t)
   self.about oush(self.rows,self.about:add(t)) self.about=ABOUT(t) end end function NOM:dist(x,y) return (x=="?" or y=="?") and 1 or x==y and 0 or 1 end a row of values, across all columns.
   .a.uw ur values, across all columns.
code implements _row sharing_; i.e. once a row is created, shared across many DATAs. This means that (e.g.) distance are normalized across the whole space and not specific sub-spaces.
sable that, change line one of this function to
ABOUT:Add(t)
ABOUT:Add(t)
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               l row = ROW(about,x.cells and x.cells or x)`
ABOUT:add(t)
row = t.cells and t or ROW(self,t) -- ensure that "x" is a row.
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 -- Return all rows sorted by their distance to 'row'.
   cols in pairs{self.x, self.y} do
__,col in pairs(cols) do col:add(row.cells[col.at]) end end a row end function ROW:around(rows) return sort(map(rows, function(row2) return {row=row2,d = self-row2} end),--# 1t*d*) end
      something into one 'col'.
   a something into one 'col'."

NOM' cols, keep a count
w many times we have seen 'x'. For RATIO columns, at most 'the.ratios' (after which, replace old items at random).
is optional (it is little hack used during retization for very ast NOM merging).
NOM:add(x, num)
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 --- --- Clustering
-- Divide data according to its distance to two distant rows.
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 -- Use all the 'best' and some sample of the 'rest'.
local half={}
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 local half=||
function half.splits(rows) local best,rest0 = half_splits(rows) print("", cat(sort(map(rows, function(row) if row.evaled then return row.rank end end = "?" then = num or 1
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        local rest = many(rest0, #best*the.Balance) n = self.n + num
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      local both = {}
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     local both = {}
for _,row in pairs(rest) do push(both,row).label="rest" end for _,row in pairs(best) do push(both,row).label="best" end return best,rest,both end
   .has[x] = num + (self.has[x] or 0) end end RATIO:add(x)
= "?" then
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 -- Divide the data, recursing into the best half. Keep the -- _first_ non-best half (as _worst_). Return the -- final best and the first worst (so the best best and the worst l pos
.n = self.n + 1
  #self.has < the.ratios then pos = 1 + (#self.has) eif rand() < the.ratios/self.n then pos = rand(#self.has) end</pre> -- worst).
function half._splits(rows, rowAbove, stop.wor stop = stop or (#rows)^the.min if #rows < stop
then return rows,worst or {} -- rows is shriving best else local A,B,As,Bs = half._split(rows,rowAbove) pos then

lif.ok=false -- the 'kept' list is no longer in sorted order lif.has[pos]=x end end end in 'x,y' values from one row into an XY.

   n in x,y values from one for in XY:add(x,y) tlo = math.min(x, self.xlo) thi = math.max(x, self.xhi)

y:add(y) end
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   then return half._splits(As,A,stop,worst or Bs) else return half._splits(Bs,B,stop,worst or As) end end end
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             --- Do one split. To reduce the cost of this search,
--- only apply it to "some" of the rows (controlled by 'the.Some').
--- If 'rowAbove' is supplied,
--- then use that for one of the two distant items (so top-level split seeks --- two poles and lower-level poles only seeks one new pole each time).
--- tunction half._split(rows, rowAbove)
--- local Asp.k, B.c, Far, project = {1, {}}
--- local some= many(rows, the.Some)
--- function far(row) return per(row:around(some), the.Far).row end
--- rowAbove or far(row) return per(row:around(some), the.Far).row end
--- rowAbove or far(any(some))
--- far(A)

    - ---- Print
.nt one xy.

1 XY:_costring()

x,lo,hi = self.txt, self.xlo, self.xhi

10 == hi then return fmt("%s = %*," x, lo)

f hi == big then return fmt("%s '8*," x, lo)

f lo == -big then return fmt("%s '6*," x, hi) return fmt("%s < %*," x, hi) end end

   - --- Query
urn 'col.has', sorting numerics (if needed).
NOM:holds() return self.has end RATIO:holds()
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      c= A-B
      self.ok then table.sort(self.has) end for n,rowx in pairs(sort(map(rows, project),lt"x")) do push(n < #rows/2 and As or Bs, rowx.row) end</pre> self.has end
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      return A, B, As, Bs, c end curn 'num', normalized to 0..1 for min..max.

RATIO:norm(num)

a= self:holds() -- "a" contains all our numbers, sorted.

a [#a] - a[] < 1E-9 and 0 or (num-a[])/(a[#a]-a[]) end
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 ---- --- biscretization
-- Divide column values into many bins, then merge unneeded ones
-- When reading this code, remember that NOMinals can't get rounded or merged
-- (only RATIOS).
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 local bins={
  turns stats collected across a set of 'col'umns n DATA:mid( nPlaces,cols, u)
for k,col in pairs(cols or self.about.y) do u.m=col.n; u[col.txt]=col:mid(nPlaces) end function bins.find(rows,col)
local n,xys = 0,{}
for _,row in pairs(rows) do local x = row.cells[col.at] if x~= "?" then
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    if x-= "" then
n = nt1
local bin = col.imNom and x or bins._bin(col.x)
local bin = col.imNom and x or bins._bin(col.x)
add2(xy, x row.lable)
add2(xy, x row.lable)
xys[bin] = xy end end
xys = sort(xys, | t*Nio*) return col.isNom and xys or bins._merges(xys,n^the.min) end DATA:div( nPlaces,cols, u)

for k,col in pairs(cols or self.about.y) do

u.n=col.n; u[col.txt]=col:div(nPlaces) end

u end
   Lot most's mid NOM:mid(...)
mode,most-nil,-1
n in pairs(self.has) do if n > most then mode,most=x,n end end mode end
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                -- RATIOs get rounded into function bins._bin(ratio,x, a = ratio:holds() lo,hi = a[1], a[#a] b = (hi - lo)/the.bins n for RATIO's mid RATIO:mid( nPlaces)
median= per(self:holds(),.5) places and rnd(median,nPlaces) or median end return hi==lo and 1 or math.floor(x/b+.5)*b end 370
711 -- While adjacent things can be merged, keep merging.
372 -- Then make sure the bins to cover ± ∞.
373 function bins._merges(xys0,nMin) py for RATIO'd div
```

```
local n, xys1 = 1, {}
while n <= #xys0 do
                 while n <= #xys0 do
local xymerged = n.fxys0 and bins._merged(xys0[n], xys0[n+1],nMin) xys0[#xys1+1] = xymerged or xys0[n] n = n + (xymerged and 2 or 1) -- if merged, skip next bin end
end
if #xys1 < #xys0
then return bins._merges(xys1,nMin) else xys1[1].xlo = -big for n=2,#xys1 do xys1[n].xlo = xys1[n-1].xhi end xys1[#xys1.xhi = big return xys1 end end
           return xys; end end

-- Merge two bins if they are too small or too complex.

-- E.g. if each bin only has "rest" values, then combine them.

-- E.g. if each bin only has "rest" values, then combine them.

-- E.g. if each bin only has "rest" values, then combine them.

-- E.g. if each bin only has "rest" values, then combine them.

-- In the combine the combine them.

-- In the combine the combine the combine them.

-- In the combine the combine the combine them.

-- In the combine them.

-- E.g. if each bin only has "rest" values, then combine them.

-- E.g. if each bin only has "rest" values, then combine them.

-- E.g. if each bin only has "rest" values, then combine them.

-- E.g. if each bin only has "rest" values, then combine them.

-- E.g. if each bin on the combine them.

-- E.g. if each bin on the combine them.

-- E.g. if each bin on the combine them.

-- E.g. if each bin on the combine them.

-- E.g. if each bin on the combine them.

-- E.g. if each bin on the combine them.

-- E.g. if each bin on the combine them.

-- E.g. if each bin on the combine them.

-- E.g. if each bin on the combine them.

-- E.g. if each subject them.

-- E.g. if each subject the combine them.

-- E.g. if each subject function how.rules(data) return how._rules1(data, data.rows) end function how._rules1(data,rowsAll, nStop,xys) tunction how_rules!(data,rowsAll, nstop,xys) xys = xys or {} nstop = nstop or the.stop if #data.rows > nstop then local xy = how_xyBest (data) if xy then local rowsl = how_selects(xy, data.rows) if rowsl then push (xvs, xv)
                 push(xys,xy)
print(cat(how._evals(rowsAll)), xyShow(xy), how._nevaled(rowsAll),#rows1) return how._rules1(clone(data,rows1),rowsAll, nStop,xys) end end return xys,data end
                  - Return best xy across all columns and ranges.
function how._nevaled(rows, n) n=0;for _,row in pairs(rows) do if row.evaled then n=n+1 end end;return n end 435 function how, evals(rows, return sort(map(rows,function(row) if row.evaled then return row.rank end end)) end 437

438 -- Scores are greater when a NOM contains more of the 'sGoal' than otherwise.
439 function how._score(nom,sGoal,nBest,nRest) local best,rest=0,0 for x,n in pairs(nom.has) do if x==sCoal then best=best+n/nBest else rest=rest+n/nRest end end return (best - rest) < 1E-3 and 0 or best^2/(best + rest) end
-- That's all folks 455 return (the=the_csv2data=csv2data, ABOUT=ABOUT, COL=COL, DATA=DATA, NOM=NOM, 458 RATIO=RATIO, ROW=ROW, XY=XY, 459 bins=bins, half=half, how=how}
```